The first step to promoting your affiliate website using YouTube video games is to choose the right games. Not all games are created equal. Some games are more popular than others. And some games are more likely to attract your target audience.

When choosing games, there are a few things you should keep in mind:

- Popularity: The more popular a game is, the more potential customers you'll reach.
- Relevance: The game should be relevant to your target audience. If you're promoting a fitness product, you'll want to choose a game that's popular with fitness enthusiasts.
- Gameplay: The game should be fun and engaging. People are more likely to watch your videos if they're enjoying the game.

Once you've chosen a few games, you can start creating content.

The key to success on YouTube is creating engaging content. Your videos should be interesting, informative, and entertaining. People should want to watch your videos and share them with their friends.

Here are a few tips for creating engaging content:

- Use high-quality visuals: Your videos should be visually appealing. Use clear and concise graphics and videos.
- Be informative: Your videos should provide value to your viewers. Teach them something new or help them solve a problem.

- Be entertaining: Your videos should be fun and engaging. People should enjoy watching them.

You can also use your videos to promote your affiliate products. But be sure to do it in a subtle way. Don't just sell your products outright. Instead, focus on providing value to your viewers and building a relationship with them.

If you can do that, you'll be more likely to generate sales for your affiliate products.

Once you've created some great content, you need to start driving traffic to your website. There are a few different ways to do this:

- Promote your videos on social media: Share your videos on social media platforms like Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
- Create a blog: Start a blog and write articles about your favorite games. Include links to your YouTube videos in your articles.
- Guest post on other blogs: Reach out to other bloggers in your niche and ask if you can guest post on their blogs. This is a great way to get your videos in front of a new audience.

You can also use paid advertising to drive traffic to your website. But be sure to target your ads carefully. You don't want to waste money on ads that aren't going to reach your target audience.
