little bit scared. They had never been away from their parents before, and they didn't know what to expect.

Their scoutmaster, Mr. McFee, was a kind and patient man. He told them that they didn't need to be scared, and that he would always be there to protect them.

The scouts set up their camp and then went for a hike in the woods. They were having a lot of fun, but then they got lost.

Just when they were about to give up hope, they saw a light in the distance. They ran towards the light, and they were so happy to see that it was Mr. McFee.

Mr. McFee was just as happy to see them. He hugged them all and told them that he was so glad they were safe.

The scouts learned a valuable lesson that day. They learned that it's important to stick together and to follow the rules. They also learned that they can always count on Mr. McFee." "
