When Sarah's five-year-old daughter, Lily, is abducted from her own backyard, her world is torn apart. Desperate to find her, Sarah will stop at nothing to bring her home.

As the investigation unfolds, Sarah begins to suspect that the people closest to her may be hiding dark secrets. Her husband, Mark, seems oddly detached from the situation. Her best friend, Emily, has been acting strangely. And even her own mother has a past that she's not willing to talk about.

As Sarah digs deeper, she uncovers a web of lies and deceit that goes all the way to the top. She soon realizes that the only person she can trust is herself.

Stolen is a fast-paced, suspenseful thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end. It's a story about the lengths that a mother will go to protect her child, and the secrets that can destroy a family.
