Drawing on years of research in positive psychology and child development, Dr. Rosenbaum presents a strengths-based approach that focuses on building on a child's existing strengths rather than dwelling on their weaknesses. Through engaging stories and practical strategies, she reveals how to:

- Identify your child's unique strengths and talents
- Create a positive and supportive environment that fosters growth
- Encourage your child to take risks and explore their interests
- Help your child develop resilience and overcome challenges
- Build a strong and lasting relationship with your child

"Your Child's Strengths" is more than just a book; it's a roadmap for unlocking the true potential of every child. Dr. Rosenbaum's insights and guidance will help you create a brighter future for your child and empower them to achieve their dreams.
